

Mohammed Kassem

BENEFICIARY

Age 36
Gender Male
Status Married
Occupation Unemployed
Income Zero
Hobbies Cooking & soccer
Location Paris, France
Active Use Daily

Story

Mohammed is a young man who possessed a restaurant in Syria. He liked to cook and take care of his family. As the war exploded in Syria, Mohammed and his family (wife and baby) decided to flee their country in order to seek a place where they could have a better life. After many months, they have somehow arrived in France, but things here are a lot more complex than expected.

Needs

- Provide food and shelter for his family.

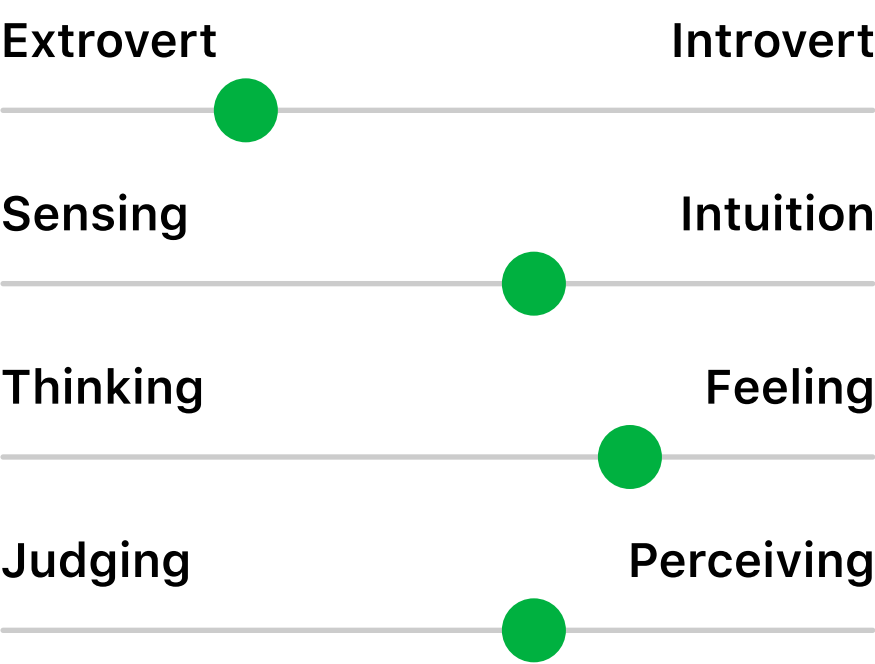

Pain Points

- Communicating in the local language.
- Getting a job without residence papers.
- Renting an apartment without proof of a job.

Goals

- Learn how to speak French correctly.
- Find a home.
- Get a job.
- Learn new skills.

Personality

Skills & Technical Abilities

