

Solidarity

from competition to collaboration

A collage of various images depicting industrial accidents and disaster scenes. It includes a large oil tank fire, a bridge collapse, a burning building, a car engulfed in flames, and workers in dangerous environments. The overall theme is one of industrial catastrophe and failure.

HOW DO WE GO FROM COMPETITION TO COLLABORATION?

Authentic Conversations

If we have authentic conversations with people we don't know yet...

...our prejudices will be confronted with reality, and we'll discover that everyone has the same fundamental needs.

Authentic Conversations

Once we understand the other,
we cannot help but feel empathy for them.

Our fear or mistrust will be replaced by caring, and we'll start to count them as members of our community.

Authentic Conversation Society

And of course, we're also looking for everyone that wants to participate in the authentic conversations.

The higher the diversity of people we connect with, the stronger our society becomes, and the better we know ourselves.
